

ALMAZ ZELLEKE

Global Post-Doctoral Fellow and Coordinator of Global Planning
NYU Shanghai
1555 Century Avenue
Pudong, Shanghai, PRC 200122
+86-021-2059-5066
az22@nyu.edu
almazzeleke.com

EDUCATION

Harvard University, Cambridge, MA. PhD in Political Science, 2008; A.M. in Political Science, 1991. Dissertation: Radical Pluralism: Arguments for an Unconditional Basic Income in the United States.

Princeton University, Princeton, NJ. A.B. in Politics, 1984.

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

Ford Foundation Predoctoral Fellowship, 1988 (three-year grant).

Harvard Graduate School of Arts and Sciences Prize Fellowship, 1988 (five-year grant).

Harvard University Center for European Studies Grant, 1991 (summer grant).

MANUSCRIPT IN PROGRESS

“Money for Nothing,” book-length manuscript in progress on the argument for an unconditional basic income in the United States.

BOOK CHAPTERS

“Basic Income and the Alaska Model: Limits of the Resource Dividend Model for the Implementation of an Unconditional Basic Income,” in Karl Widerquist and Michael W. Howard, eds., Alaska’s Permanent Fund Dividend: Examining its Suitability as a Model (Palgrave Macmillan, 2012), pp. 141-55.

“The Capitalist Road to Communism: Are We There Yet?” in Axel Gosseries and Yannick Vanderborght, eds., Arguing about justice: Essays for Philippe Van Parijs (Louvain, Belgium: Presses Universitaires de Louvain, 2011), pp. 415-22.

“Basic Income in the United States: Redefining Citizenship in the Liberal State,” in Karl Widerquist, Michael A. Lewis, and Steven Pressman, eds., The Ethics and Economics of the Basic Income Guarantee (Ashgate, 2005).

REFEREED ARTICLES

“Feminist Political Theory and the Argument for an Unconditional Basic Income,” Policy and Politics, vol. 39, no. 1 (January 2011), pp. 27-42.

“Institutionalizing the Universal Caregiver through an Unconditional Basic Income?” Basic Income Studies, 3:3 (December 2008), article 7.

“Targeting Benefit Levels to Individuals or Families?” Basic Income Studies, 2:1 (June 2007), article 7.

“Basic Income in the United States: Redefining Citizenship in the Liberal State,” Review of Social Economy, 63:4 (December 2005): 633-48.

“Distributive Justice and the Argument for an Unconditional Basic Income,” Journal of Socio-Economics, 34:1 (February 2005): 3-15.

BOOK REVIEWS

Review of Charles Karelis, The Persistence of Poverty: Why the Economics of the Well-off Can't Help the Poor, in Basic Income Studies 8:1 (August 2013), 139-41.

Review of Charles Murray, In Our Hands: A Plan to Replace the Welfare State, in Basic Income Studies 3:1 (June 2008), article 8.

Review of Ailsa McKay, The Future of Social Security Policy: Women, work and a Citizens' Basic Income, in Basic Income Studies 1:2 (December 2006), article 13.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

“Lessons from Sweden: Solidarity, the Welfare State, and Basic Income.” Fifteenth International Congress of the Basic Income Earth Network, Montréal, Canada, June 2014.

“Which Way Forward for a Basic Income in the United States—Expand the EITC or Social Security? Fifteenth International Congress of the Basic Income Earth Network, Montréal, Canada, June 2014.

Invited panelist, Dissent panel on Basic Income, New Left Forum, New York City, June 9th, 2013 (with Lena Lavinas, Benjamin Kunkel, and Frances Fox Piven).

“Incremental Steps to a Basic Income in the United States,” Fourteenth International Congress of the Basic Income Earth Network, Munich, Germany, September 2012.

“Does a Resource Tax Eliminate the Exploitation Objection to a Basic Income Once and For All?” Eleventh Annual North American Basic Income Congress, Toronto, Canada, May 2012.

“Basic Income and the Alaska Model: Limits of the Resource Dividend Model for the Implementation of an Unconditional Basic Income,” Tenth Annual North American Basic Income Congress at the Eastern Economics Association Annual Meeting, New York City, February 2011.

“Basic Income, Stakeholder Grants, and Resource Dividends: Limits of the Alaska Model,” Thirteenth International Congress of the Basic Income Earth Network, Sao Paulo, Brazil, July 2010.

“Should Feminists Endorse a Basic Income? Institutionalizing the Universal Caregiver through an Unconditional Basic Income,” Twelfth International Congress of the Basic Income Earth Network, Dublin, Ireland, June 2008.

“Reconsidering Independence: Foundations of a Feminist Theory of Distributive Justice,” Twelfth International Congress of the Basic Income Earth Network, Dublin, Ireland, June 2008.

“Is ‘The Plan’ a Basic Income? An Assessment of Charles Murray’s Proposal to Replace the Welfare State with an (Almost) Universal Grant,” Sixth Congress of the U.S. Basic Income Guarantee Network at the Eastern Economics Association Annual Meeting, New York City, February 2007.

Panel Moderator, “A Tribute to the Work of Robert Harris,” Sixth Congress of the U.S. Basic Income Guarantee Network at the Eastern Economics Association Annual Meeting, New York City, February 2007.

“Individual vs. Family Benefits: Equity, Efficiency, and Incentive Issues in the Implementation of a Basic Income,” Fifth Congress of the U.S. Basic Income Guarantee Network at the Eastern Economics Association Annual Meeting, Philadelphia, February 2006.

“A Feminist Critique of Reciprocity and Conditionality,” Plenary Panel with Nancy Folbre and Eva Feder Kittay on Women, Family, and the Basic Income Guarantee, Fourth Congress of the U.S. Basic Income Guarantee Network at the Eastern Economics Association Annual Meeting, New York City, March 2005.

“Distributive Justice and the Argument for Basic Income,” Second Congress of the U.S. Basic Income Guarantee Network at the Eastern Economics Association Annual Meeting, New York City, February 2003.

“Radical Pluralism: A Liberal Defense of Unconditionality,” Ninth International Congress of the Basic Income European Network, Geneva, Switzerland, September 2002.

“Basic Income in the United States: Redefining Citizenship in the Liberal State,” First Congress of the U.S. Basic Income Guarantee Network, CUNY Graduate Center, New York City, March 2002.

UNPUBLISHED ACADEMIC PAPERS

“Foundations of Rousseau’s Social Contract Theory in the Discourse on the Origin and Foundations of Inequality Among Men.” Harvard University Seminar Paper, 1991.

“Property and Rationality in Locke’s Two Treatises of Government.” Harvard University Seminar Paper, 1989.

“Old and New Property Rights in Supreme Court Doctrine.” Harvard University Seminar Paper, 1989.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

NYU Shanghai. Recitation Leader. Global Perspectives on Society, survey course in western and eastern moral philosophy and ethics. Fall 2014-Spring 2015.

The New School, Department of Social Sciences. Instructor. Radical Thought, survey course in political theory from Plato to Marx. Spring 1998, Fall 1999. New School Bachelor of Arts Program Office. Workshop Leader. Workshop in Research and Writing Skills in the Humanities and Social Sciences, six-week workshop for adult undergraduates. 1996-98.

Harvard University, Government Department. Senior Thesis Advisor. Supervised undergraduate honors candidates on year-long independent research projects on topics in political theory and policy studies. 1993-94, 1990-91. Teaching Fellow, Introduction to Political Philosophy, survey course in political theory. Spring 1993. Head Teaching Fellow, Constitutional Democracy in America, required tutorial for Government Department sophomores on American constitutional philosophy and law. 1991-92. Teaching Fellow, Constitutional Democracy in America. 1990-91.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

NYU Shanghai, Shanghai, PRC. Coordinator of Global Planning. Member of the Office of Academic Affairs with responsibility for advising students on study away, and liaison with the Office of Global Programs at NYU NY to coordinate planning for study away resources for NYU Shanghai students in NYU’s global network of portal campuses and academic centers. Fall 2014-present.

The New School, New York, NY.

Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, The New School for General Studies (since renamed The New School for Public Engagement). Member of the senior staff of the Executive Dean with academic oversight of four graduate degree programs, an adult undergraduate program, two university service departments, continuing education, and public programming; liaison with Communications and External Affairs, Office of Admission, and Office of the Provost on new program development, assessment, program review, and accreditation; worked closely with the Executive Dean and 3 Associate Deans on strategic planning, enrollment management, and academic initiatives; supervised a staff of 5. Project manager of the Sloan Foundation E-Learning Initiative. 2009-11.

Director of Academic Affairs, The New School for General Studies. Oversaw liberal arts curriculum for 800 adult undergraduate and 3,500 continuing education students; assisted the Dean with a variety of academic projects, including curriculum development, new program development and implementation, program review, part-time faculty union contract implementation, management, and negotiation, and new faculty orientation. Founded a new undergraduate and continuing education curriculum in Food Studies. 2005-09.

Acting Chair, Department of Humanities. Supervised approximately one hundred part-time faculty in the fields of literature, art history, philosophy, and religion. Oversaw humanities curriculum for adult undergraduate and continuing education students. Approved course proposals, recruited new instructors and developed new courses, reviewed syllabi, edited catalog course descriptions, evaluated instructors, monitored courses for enrollment and revenue, and mediated student-faculty disputes. Participated in recruitment of New School Bachelors Program core faculty. 2003-04; 2000-01.

Acting Director of The New School Bachelor of Arts Program. Directed an adult undergraduate liberal arts program of over 400 students. Supervised program staff, including nine part-time core faculty. Developed and implemented department policies and student services. Worked closely with department chairs on curriculum development and recruitment and training of core faculty. Supervised department budget and allocation of student financial aid. Led informational sessions on program features and monthly recruitment open houses for prospective students. 1998-99. Assistant Director of The New School Bachelors Program, 1997-98. Assistant to the Director of The New School Bachelors Program, 1995-97.

Harvard University, Mather House. Assistant Senior Tutor for Fellowships. Advised students on fellowships and grants, edited grant proposals, managed the fellowship and prize nomination process, served on university selection committees, 1990-94. Resident Tutor in Government and Social Studies. Supervised and counseled students in an undergraduate residence on all aspects of their college careers, 1990-94. Designated Sexual Harassment Adjunct Advisor, 1992-94.

Harvard University, Government Department. Assistant Head Tutor. Assisted in the administration of the largest undergraduate concentration at Harvard. Advised students, maintained records, sectioned courses, matched students with senior thesis advisors. 1990-94.

OTHER UNIVERSITY EXPERIENCE

NYU Robert F. Wagner Graduate School of Public Service. Visiting Scholar, 2013-2014.

New School Dean's Office. Consultant to the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Developed and implemented the division's first orientation for new faculty, and revised the faculty handbook. Fall 2001, Summer 2000.

Harvard University Art Museums. Development Researcher. Researched potential sources of foundation and corporate support for museum fundraising. 1994-95.

Harvard Magazine. Editorial Intern. Wrote short pieces for the alumni magazine, and provided research, editorial, and production assistance. 1994-95.

OTHER EXPERIENCE

Brookings Institution, Washington, DC. Research Verifier. Verified, updated, and edited manuscripts on economic policy issues for accuracy, timeliness, and clarity of presentation. 1986-88.

Leventhal & Senter, Washington, DC. Paralegal. Research assistant in a communications law firm. 1984-86.

MEMBERSHIPS AND SERVICE

Secretary-Treasurer, Basic Income Earth Network (BIEN), 2012-2014

Treasurer, BIEN, 2008-12

Conference Organizer, Twelfth Annual North American Basic Income Congress, May 9-11, 2013, New York City

Member, Conference Organizing Committee, Seventh Congress of the U.S. Basic Income Guarantee Network, March 7-9, 2008, Boston, MA

Member, Coordinating Committee, U.S. Basic Income Guarantee Network, 2002-14

Associate Editor, Basic Income Studies

Referee, Basic Income Studies, Journal of Socio-Economics

LANGUAGE SKILLS

Fluent French, reading knowledge of German and Italian.